

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. NOTICE.

THE present volume comprises the Annual Lists of Additions made to the Department of Manuscripts, from 1841 to 1845 inclusive, and contains a description (often very detailed) of 4170 Mss. and 1150 Charters and Rolls, exclusive of Seals and Papyri. Besides a large mass of miscellaneous Mss. acquired at various times, it embraces the whole of the valuable biblical and classical Mss. and Autographs of the late Rt. Rev. Dr. Samuel Butler, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, purchased in 1841; the important series of biblical and theological Syriac Mss. obtained in 1841 and 1843 from the monastery of St. Mary Deipara, in the Nitrian desert; the very extensive collection of Papers and Correspondence of the late Marquess Wellesley, during his administration of India, presented by his representatives in 1842; a considerable number of musical Mss., presented by the Marquess of Northampton in 1843; the valuable collection of Welsh Mss., presented in 1844 by the Governors of the Welsh School and the Cymmrodorion Society; the Oriental Mss. acquired from John Craufurd, Esq., and Major T. B. Jervis, in 1842 and 1843; several interesting volumes of Sir Julius Cæsar's papers, purchased at the Strawberry Hill sale in 1842; a number of volumes relating to the history of the Spanish Indies and of Portugal, during the 16th, 17th, and 18th centuries, selected from the libraries of the late Viscount Kingsborough and Robert Southey, Esq.; and many fine biblical and other Mss. (some of which are exquisitely illuminated), obtained in 1844 from the collection of H.R.H. the late Duke of Sussex.

A very full Index is added to the whole, the extent of which will best speak for the pains and labor taken in its compilation. To facilitate references to the Annual Lists (each of which was printed separately) a table is annexed, pointing out the regular series of numbers, with the corresponding pages of each List.

At the end is "written by the hand of Abraham ben Moses, in the year 381 of the short æra," i. e., A.D. 1621. Mounted on a mahogany roller. [11,832.]

MSS.—1841.

BOOK OF ESTHER, in Hebrew. A vellum roll, 6 feet 3 inches in length and 1 foot 6 inches in width, finely written in columns of 39 lines each, but, apparently, of recent execution. Mounted on a mahogany roller. [11,833.]

BOOK OF ESTHER, in Hebrew. Written on brown basil leather, forming a roll 14 feet 6 inches in length and 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches wide, in columns of eighteen lines each. Mounted on a mahogany roller, with a yellow damask silk flap. [11,834.]

PSALTERIUM, cum Canticis sacris et hymnis; Græce. On vellum, probably of the XIIIth century. Very small Quarto. [11,835.]

EVANGELIA QUATUOR, Actus Apostolorum, Epistolæ Catholicæ et Paulinæ, et Psalterium cum Canticis; Græce. Three leaves are wanting, containing Mark, ch. i. vv. 1-28; Acts, ch. i. vv. 1-28; and Psalms, 1-3. On vellum, beautifully written, with paintings of the Evangelists and other subjects; probably of the XIth century. Small Quarto. [11,836.]

NOVUM TESTAMENTUM Græcum, scil. Evangelia quatuor, Actus Apostolorum, Epistolæ Catholicæ et Paulinæ, et Apocalypsis. Prefixed are Synaxaria, or tables of the Epistles and Gospels, as they are to be read on feasts and Sundays throughout the year. Before each Gospel is a painting of the Evangelist, with preface, short verses, and table of chapters or divisions. On vellum, written by the hand of Methodius, τοῦ ὑποταξιμένου, i. e., the monk, A.M. 6866, A.D. 1358. Folio. [11,837.]

EVANGELIA QUATUOR; Græce. With tables of lessons prefixed, and lists of chapters to each Gospel, and paintings of the Evangelists. On vellum, written by Constantine, priest and notary, in the monastery of S. Demetrius, the Martyr, A.M. 6834, A.D. 1326. Quarto. [11,838.]

EVANGELIA QUATUOR; Græce. On paper, negligently written, at the end of the XVth cent. Quarto. [11,839.]

EVANGELIARIUM, sive Lectiones sacræ, quæ in ecclesia Græca leguntur per circulum anni; Græce. Between the lines are introduced the red accents which were used to direct the voice in reading or chaunting. On vellum, XIIIth cent. Quarto. [11,840.]

LECTIONARIUM pars, sive collectio Lectionum, quæ in Ecclesia Orientali in festis diebus leguntur; Græce. Imperfect at the beginning and end. On vellum, XIIIth cent. Small Quarto. [11,841.]

BIBLIA SACRA Latina, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologis S. Hieronymi. At the end are some Latin verses on the number of chapters in each book, and also tables of the Lessons on Sundays and Festivals. On vellum, end of the XIIIth cent. Folio. [11,842.]

BIBLIA SACRA Latina, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologis S. Hieronymi. At the end follow the "Interpretationes Hebraicorum nominum," - usually attributed to Remigius, Monk of Auxerre. On vellum, finely written and ornamented with miniatures, of the beginning of the xivth century. Large Folio. [11,843.]

- BIBLIA SACRA Latina, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologis S. Hieronymi, et interpretatione nominum Hebraicorum, secundum Remigium. On vellum, xiiiith cent. Octavo. [11,844.]
- BIBLIA SACRA Latina, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologis S. Hieronymi. On vellum, xivth cent. On the covers are the arms of Cardinal Hieronymo Veralli, who died in 1555. Quarto. [11,845.]
- PSALTERIUM et Cantica sacra, cum Calendario præmisso. On vellum, written in a German hand, with miniatures and ornamental letters, towards the close of the xiiiith century. On the covers are stamped four heraldic coats, which belong to the abbey of Kaisersheim. Quarto. [11,846.]
- PSALTERIUM et Cantica sacra, cum Symbolo S. Athanasii; præmisso Calendario. On vellum, written in a German hand, with numerous illuminations and initials, coarsely executed, but profusely gilded, at the close of the xiiiith century. Quarto. [11,847.]
- EVANGELIA QUATUOR, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologo et argumentis S. Hieronymi, et tabulis capitulorum. Prefixed are the epistles of Jerome to Damasus, and of Eusebius to Carpian, with the Canons, written within ornamental arches of various colors, and at the end of the volume is added a Table of the Gospels read throughout the year. On vellum, finely written in the Carlovingian minuscule letter, with paintings of the Evangelists, coarsely executed. The initial letters are by another hand, and in a better style of art; probably of the end of the viiith or early part of the ixth century. The volume is in its ancient binding, the oaken sides of which are covered with plates of silver, embossed with figures of Christ and of the Agnus Dei, and ornamented with the symbols of the Evangelists, enamelled, and various colored stones, most of which are now replaced by gems. In the interior of the covers are inserted some relics of finger-bones. Folio. [11,848.]
- EVANGELIA QUATUOR, versionis Vulgatæ, cum prologo et argumentis S. Hieronymi adscriptis; et tabulis capitulorum. Prefixed are the Epistles of Jerome to Damasus, and of Eusebius to Carpian, with the Canons in colored arches. On vellum, written in the Carlovingian character of the ixth century, with ornamental initials and borders. Quarto. [11,849.]
- EVANGELIA QUATUOR, ex versione Vulgata, cum prologo et argumentis S. Hieronymi, et capitulorum tabulis; præmissis epistolis Hieronymi ad Damasum, et Eusebii ad Carpianum, cum Canonibus. On vellum, of the xith century, with ornamental tables and figures of the Evangelists, in the Anglo-Saxon style of art. Folio. [11,850.]
- EVANGELIA secundum S. Lucam et S. Johannem, cum Nicolai de Lyra Postillis. On paper, written in the year 1449. Folio. [11,851.]

EPISTOLÆ PAULINÆ, versionis Vulgatæ, annexa Epistola supposititia ad Laodicenses; Actus Apostolorum, Epistolæ septem Canonice, et Apocalypsis, cum S. Hieronymi prologis, argumentis, et capitulorum tabulis. From some verses written before the Epistle to the Romans, it appears that this volume was given to the monastery of St. Gall by Hartnod, who was Abbot there from the year 872 to 884. (See Mart. Gerberti Iter Alemannicum, p. 204. ed. 1773.) It contains the disputed passage in 1 Ep. Joh. ch. v. 7. On vellum, ixth cent. Quarto. [11,852.]

EPISTOLÆ PAULINÆ, cum Gisleberti Porretani, Pictaviensis Episcopi, commentariis et prologo. On vellum, finely written, with large figured initials, xiith cent. Folio. [11,853.]

EPISTOLÆ PAULINÆ, cum prologo et glossis uberrimis, ex antiquorum Patrum scriptis maximam partem desumptis. [see Mss. Harl. 659 and 3249.] On vellum, xiiith cent. Folio. [11,854.]

THE PENTATEUCH, in Arabic. From a note at the end of the volume, it would appear that the ancient portion of this Ms. was written in the year 740 of the æra of the Martyrs, A.D. 1024, and the deficiencies supplied in the year 1348. A.D. 1632. The character of the Ms. does not, however, seem to bear out the age assigned to it. On paper. Quarto. Formerly in the Collection of Dr. Adam Clarke. [11,855.]

THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Arabic. Written on cotton paper, in the year of the Martyrs 1053. A.H. 737, A.D. 1335; with paintings of the Evangelists, and gold ornamental titles. Quarto. [11,856.]

BOOKS of Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Canticles, and Wisdom, with some extraneous matter at the end; in Armenian. On vellum, xvth cent. [This Ms. was supposed erroneously by Bp. Butler to contain the New Testament, and to be of the ixth century.] Small Quarto. [11,857.]

WYCLIFFITE earlier Version of the New Testament, with the usual prologues. On vellum, of the first half of the xvth century. Folio. [11,858.]

RITUALE Græcorum, scil., Oratio pro muliere puerpera post quadraginta dies; Officium ad faciendum catechumenum, cui subjungitur Officium baptismatis; Ordo in sponsalibus celebrandis; Officium nuptiarum; Officium extremæ unctionis; Officium aquæ benedictæ [imperf.]; Officium Cœnæ Dominicæ. Græce. On vellum, of the xvth cent., but written over an earlier text, perhaps of the xiith cent., which, as far as is legible, contains portions of the New Testament. 2 Vols. Quarto. [11,859, 11,860.]

OFFICIUM Exequiarum;—Orationes in mulierem puerperam, in eandem post quadraginta dies, et cum abortitur;—Hymni μεγαλυνάξια dicti, per circulum anni psallendi;—Orationes duæ condonatoriæ. Græce. On paper, commencement of the xvth century. Duodecimo. [11,861.]

MISSALE vel Rituale Romanum, notis musicis instructum. A Calendar is prefixed, in which are several entries of the obits of the families of De Latines, De Motta or De le Motte, De Sancto Paulo, and others. On vellum, of the xith cent., but supplied at the beginning and end in a hand of the xiiith cent. It formerly belonged to the monastery of St. Mary De Parco, near Louvain. Small Quarto. [11,862.]

BREVIARIA, sive compendia Officiorum ecclesiæ Romanæ per totum anni circulum, cum calendaris præmissis. On vellum, of the xvth cent., neatly written and ornamented. These volumes formerly belonged to the Monastery of St. Paul, "dicti Rubee Vallis [Roode Clooster] in Zonia, juxta Bruxellam." 2 Vols. Duodecimo. [11,863, 11,864.]

HORÆ B. Mariæ Virginis, et alia Officia, secundum usum ecclesiæ Romanæ, cum Calendario præmisso. On vellum, of the xvth cent., with miniatures and ornamental borders, executed by a Flemish hand. Octavo. [11,865.]

HORÆ B. Mariæ Virginis et alia Officia, secundum usum ecclesiæ Parisiensis, cum Calendario præmisso. On vellum, of the end of the xvth or beginning of the xvith century, with numerous miniatures, executed, apparently, by an Italian artist. A coat of arms is blazoned twice in the volume, which has been ascribed to the family of Lumachelli, but may, more probably, belong to Thiboult, of France. Bound in stamped crimson velvet, with silver-gilt clasps. Octavo. [11,866.]

HORÆ B. Mariæ Virginis, et alia Officia. On vellum, xvth cent., ornamented with small miniatures and borders. Duodecimo. [11,867.]

GREGORII, Episcopi Nysseni, tractatus prior in Psalmorum inscriptiones; —Ejusdem tractatus posterior de inscriptionibus Psalmorum. Græce. On vellum, xvth cent. At the beginning and end are inserted six leaves, on which are portions of the Gospel of S. Matthew, in Greek, probably of the xiiith century. Octavo. [11,868.]

MISCELLANEA Græca, scil. Dialogi inter Angelum Dei et Episcopum fragmentum; —Περὶ πολιτείας ἠαρέτου διαφόρων πατέρων; —Γερότων διαλίξις πρὸς ἀλλήλους περὶ λογισμῶν. [imperf.] At the end is added a fragment, written at a later period, of an Hymnology to various Saints, comprehending part of the month of February. On vellum, of the xiiith and xivth centuries. Duodecimo. [11,869.]

SYMEONIS LOGOTHETÆ, cognomento Metaphrastæ, Vitæ Sanctorum; Græce. The volume contains at present only the lives for the month of September, but the table prefixed comprehends the months of September and October. On vellum, of the xiiith cent., beautifully written, and adorned with miniatures in gold and colors, skillfully executed. Large folio. [11,870.]

EUTHYMI, Zigabeni, Orthodoxæ Fidei dogmatica Panoplia; Græce.

ELEVEN LEAVES of a very richly illuminated but unfinished Genealogical Work on vellum, designed to shew the descent and alliances of the Royal Houses of Spain and Portugal, from the earliest period to the beginning of the 16th century; executed, in all probability, by Simon Benichius or Bening, of Bruges, and other Flemish artists, for the Infante Don Fernando, third son of Emanuel, and brother of John III. Kings of Portugal, by Mary of Arragon and Castile. He was born in 1507, and died in 1534. [See Damiaõ de Goes, Chronica do Rey Dom Emanuel, pt. ii. c. xix. Lisb. 1619. Guicciardini, Descrittione de tutti i Paesi Bassi, p. 128. Antv. 1588. Lobkowitz, Philippus Prudens, p. 165. Antv. 1639. Sanderus, Flandria Illustrata, tom. i. p. 210. Col. Agr. 1641. Faria y Sousa, Europa Portuguesa, tom. ii. pt. 4. c. 1. Lisb. 1679. De Sousa, Historia Genealogica da Casa Real Portugueza, tom. i. p. xxx. Lisb. 1735. and Nagler, Neues Allgemeines Künstler-Lexicon, vol. i. p. 414. Münch. 1835.] Large Folio. [12,531.]

A brief description of the several subjects of this splendid work is here annexed. The headings and names are throughout in Portuguese.

i. A leaf intended for the Prologue, for which a vacant space is left. At the head are the arms of Portugal, richly emblazoned, with a label of three points arg. for difference, the first and third points charged with Leon and Castile quarterly, being, apparently, the armorial distinction of the Infante Don Fernando. On the sides are supporters, two savage men proper, each holding a shield, bearing the following device, per pale arg. and gu. a brazen serpent on a cross or, standing on a mount vert, with the motto SALVS VITE on a scroll. On the border are represented subjects of a mythological character.

ii. A leaf intended for the generation of Magog, with a blank space left for the explanatory text. On the border are very spirited figures of eleven giants, or fabulous personages, in various attitudes, representing the descent from Unor to Bonfind.

iii. "Tronco dos Reyes de Liam e Castela;" being a table of the first Kings of Spain (or rather of the Asturias), after the invasion of the Moors, viz. from Favila, father of Pelayo I., to Vilmeran, son of Alfonso I. A. D. 757.

At the foot is represented a battle, probably that of St. Maria de Cobadonga, fought in 718.

iv. Intitled "Tronco dos Reyes d'Aragam," containing the first Kings of Navarre, from Don Iñigo Arista, who died about A.D. 888, to Don Sancho Abarca, who died in 926. On the margin are three miniatures; i. The Coronation of Garcia Inhegez, when young; ii. The death of Garcia and his Queen Urraca, with the posthumous birth of Sancho Abarca; iii. A miraculous vision of a cross. At the foot is a battle, probably the defeat of the Moors, by Sancho Abarca, before Pamplona.

v. Continuation of the preceding; viz. from Garcia, son of Sancho Abarca, to Sancho III. and his sons, Fernando, Garcia, and Ramiro, Kings of Castile, Navarre and Arragon. At the side is the battle gained over Almanzor (?), and at the foot are representations, i. of the lists prepared for the combat between Ramiro and his half brothers, who had accused their own mother of adultery; ii. Fernando and Garcia on their knees before their father Sancho, asking pardon, while Ramiro is standing by them.

vi. Table shewing the descent of Don Henry of Portugal from Stephen, King of Hungary. At the foot are representations, i. of an army under Don Henry's banner, leaving Portugal to compose the differences between Castile and Arragon; ii. Don Henry leaving Portugal, in a galley bearing his arms, for the Holy Land, to assist Baldwin, King of Jerusalem.

vii. viii. "Tavoa primeira dos Reyes de Portugal," namely, from Alfonso Anriquez, who died in 1185, to Alfonso II., who died in 1223; shewing also the descent of the latter from Raymond Berengarius, Count of Barcelona. At the foot are representations of Lisbon, and Santarem, on the Tagus, with the proclamation of Alfonso as king, in 1139, after the battle of Aurica. On the left margin are painted, i. the vision which appeared to him before the battle, and ii. the battle in which he defeated Alfonso Raymond, King of Castile. On the right margin are two battles with the Moors.

ix. Table shewing the descent from Sancho Capello and Alfonso III., sons of Alfonso II., to Alfonso IV. do Salado (who died in 1357) and his children. At the foot is the battle of Salado, fought in 1340.

x. Table to shew the connexion of the House of Portugal with England and Burgundy, viz. from John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster, and Philip the Bold, Duke of Burgundy, to Maximilian, son of Eleanor of Portugal, who married Mary, daughter of Charles the Bold, of Burgundy. On the margin are portraits of the Dukes of Burgundy descended from John King of France.

xi. An unfinished table, in outline, intended to shew the descent of John II., King of Portugal, who died in 1495, from John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster.

A COLLECTION of Madrigals and Motetts for two, three, four, five, and six voices; in the handwriting of John Immyns, founder of the Madrigal Society. A table of the Madrigals, etc. with the authors' names, is prefixed. Quarto. xviiith cent. [12,532.]

A VOLUME of Latin Prayers, written in 1524, for the use of Sigismond I., King of Poland, with four very exquisite miniatures by an artist whose initials are S. C. [Scipione Cavaletti?], in which are introduced two portraits of the king. On the fly-leaves are several entries relative to Bona, Queen of Sigismond I., and her children, some of which memoranda are in the handwriting of the Queen herself. There is also the autograph signature of Sigismond III. of Poland. Towards the end of the volume some paper leaves are inserted, written in an Italian hand of the XVIIth century, consisting chiefly of prayers to saints, with colored drawings. This volume passed from the successors of Sigismond I. to the Sobieski family, and thence to the Cardinal York, after whose death it was presented to the Duke of Sussex. On vellum. Small Quarto. [15,281.]

THE PENTATEUCH, in Hebrew, with the Chaldee version, five Megilloth and Haphtaroth; beautifully written in three columns, in the square character, with vowels, accents, and masoretic notes, disposed in various figures. There are miniatures at the commencement of each book, in gold and colors. The writing resembles much the German character, but the arrangement of the Haphtaroth and the vellum would indicate that the volume was executed in Spain or Italy, at the close of the XIIIth or beginning of the XIVth century. On vellum. Small Quarto. From the Sussex Collection. [15,282.]

THE PENTATEUCH, in Hebrew, with the Haphtaroth, arranged according to the Spanish rite, and five Megilloth. Written in the Rashi character, with vowels, accents, and a few masoretic notes. At the commencement of each book is an illuminated border. On vellum, of the XVth century. Small Quarto. From the Sussex Collection. [15,283.]

ORIGINAL DISPATCHES, many of which are in cypher, from [Jean Baptiste Colbert] Marquis de Torcy, to Henri Charles Arnauld, Abbé de Pomponne, French Ambassador at Venice, from 15th Apr., 1706, to 17th Feb., 1710; including many letters with the signatures of Louis XIV. and the minister [Jean Baptiste] Colbert. Prefixed is a "Mémoire pour servir d'instruction au St. Abbé de Pomponne, Con^{sr}. du Roy, etc., allant à Venise, en qualité de son Ambassadeur;" dat. 28 Jan. 1705. 2 Vols. Folio. From the Sussex Collection. [15,284, 15,285.]

LA TERZA Decha di Titto Livio, Patavino, de la seconda guerra tra Romani e Carthaginesi; with a table of chapters prefixed. On vellum, written at Venice, by Georgius de Sibenico, "filius S. Matthei condam Augustini de Violantis de Spaletto," in the year 1464. The first leaf and the initial letters are richly illuminated. Folio. From the Sussex Collection. [15,286.]

RAMAYANA, the great epic poem of Valmiki, in Sanscrit, narrating the exploits of the hero Rama. This copy is written on paper, in the Devanagari character, but is imperfect, wanting the third and fifth books. It is illustrated throughout with many hundreds of curious colored drawings, a portion of which is exceedingly well executed. The first book was transcribed Samvat, 1769 (A.D. 1713), by a more recent hand than the remainder of the work, which is dated Samvat, 1707—1710 (A.D. 1651—1654). This sumptuous copy formerly belonged to the Rajah of Odeypore, who presented it to the British Resident, Lt.-Col James Tod, from whom it came into the library of the Duke of Sussex. 3 Vols. Large Folio. [15,295, 15,296, 15,297.]

LES COMMENTAIRES de César, in ten books; an anonymous French translation of the seven books of Cæsar's Commentaries, with the continuation by Hirtius Pansa, here called Julius Celsus. The first and last book are compiled by the translator from Sallust, Suetonius, and other authorities. At the commencement is a table of chapters and a prologue, commencing, "Homme creature de Dieu raisonnable," [cf. P. Paris, Manuscrits François, tom. i. p. 39, tom. ii. p. 299]. On vellum, written at the close of the xvth century, with large miniatures at the head of each book. Folio. [Bibl. Eg. 1065.]

PSALTERIUM secundum versionem S. Hieronymi, cum Canticis, symbolo S. Athanasii, litania et vigiliis mortuorum in fine additis. Prefixed is a kalendar, in which are entered obits of the family of Holebrock in the xvth, and of King in the xvth century. The obit also of William Pepyr, Vicar of Metyngham, co. Suff., is inserted, by whom (as appears from a note on f. 10 b.) the present volume was given to the college there. On vellum, written in England, in the xiiith century, with miniatures. At the end of the volume are two fly-leaves, containing a portion of the legend of St. Eustace, in French verse, nearly of the same age. From the collection of the Rev. F. Blomefield, of Fersfield in Norfolk, who has written some notes in it. Folio. [Bibl. Eg. 1066.]

LIBER Ordinis Pontificalis; very beautifully written and illuminated, with miniatures representing the various episcopal functions. The arms of the prelate for whom the volume was originally executed have been covered over by those of Etienne de Poncher, Bishop of Paris from 1502 to 1519. The volume was subsequently in the possession of Dominique Segurier, Bishop of Meaux, whose arms and cypher are on the cover, and in 1724 was in the hands of Nicolas Joseph de Paris, afterwards Bishop of Orleans, as appears by his arms stamped on the fly-leaf. On vellum. Octavo. [Bibl. Eg. 1067.]

HORÆ B. Mariæ Virginis, præmisso kalendario;—Septem Psalmi pœnitentiales;—Litania;—Officium pro defunctis;—Orationes, et commemorationes Sanctorum;—Horæ abbreviatæ de conceptione B. Mariæ Virginis;—Lectiones ex Evangeliiis de passione Jesu Christi. On vellum, written in France in the xvth century, with well-executed miniatures and ornamental borders. A coat of arms of the original proprietor is often repeated; argent, three bars sable, over all, a lion rampant gules. Small Quarto. [Bibl. Eg. 1068.]

LE ROMAN de la Rose, [par Guillaume de Lorris et Jean de Meung]. On vellum; of the xvth century, with miniatures in outline. Folio. [Bibl. Eg. 1069.]

HORÆ et Officia, ordine sequenti :—Kalendarium ;—Lectiones ex Evangeliiis ;—HORÆ B. Mariæ Virginis ;—Septem psalmi pœnitentiales ;—Litania ;—Officium mortuorum ;—HORÆ abbreviatæ pro unoquoque die septimanæ ;—Commemorationes Sanctorum et dierum festorum ;—Oratio ad Virginem, et officia varia abbreviata ;—Lectiones evangelicæ de Passione Christi ;—Historia Biblica, versibus expressa, incip. " Verbum a principio procedens eterno." On vellum, finely written and illuminated, for the use of René of Anjou, titular king of Naples, who died in 1480. At the commencement is a large shield of his arms emblazoned ; and his badge of a sail inflated by the wind, with the motto En Dieu en soit, is often repeated. At fol. 43 b. are some prayers added, in which he is prayed for by name ; and at fol. 53 is a miniature representing him as a crowned skeleton, with a banner of his arms beneath ; a subject which is found also in a Ms. written by René, preserved in the Bibl. du Roi, No. 58, Fonds Gauguieres. It is possible, that this and two or three other miniatures in the volume were painted by René himself. From a memorandum at the end of the volume, it appears that this volume was subsequently presented to King Henry VII. of England by his chaplain George Strangways, Archdeacon of Coventry. Small Quarto. [Bibl. Eg. 1070.]

TO THE DEPARTMENT OF MANUSCRIPTS.

ANCIENT CARTULARY of the Priory of St. Swithin, Winchester, containing a large collection of royal and other charters, in Anglo-Saxon and Latin, from the reign of Ceadwalla of Wessex, A.D. 688, to the reign of Edward the Confessor, A.D. 1046; with the addition of a few others of later date, granted by William I., Stephen and Henry I. The volume is very finely written throughout, with ornamental initial letters, and was probably compiled in the time of Henry de Blois, Bishop of Winchester (brother of king Stephen), between the years 1130–1150. It is in the original stamped binding, and at each end have been pasted down portions of four large quarto leaves of a very ancient manuscript (probably of the beginning of the viiith century), written in uncial letters, and containing a fragment of the Latin translation, by Pelagius Diaconus, of the work De Vitis Patrum, from cap. xiii. § 9. p. 615, col. 2, to cap. xiv. § 17, p. 619, col. 2, of Rosweide's edition, Antv. 1615. An index of contents has been originally prefixed to the volume, but is mutilated, and only a portion remains. On the recto of the first leaf appears the name of a former possessor, "Liber dñi Thome Takcombe, 1550." On vellum. Folio. [15,350.]

"MONUMENTA BRITANNICA ex Autographis Romanorum Pontificum registis ceterisque documentis deprompta. Marinus Marinius, Tabulariis Vaticanis Præfectus, conlegit, digessit." A COLLECTION of alchymical treatises, transcribed in the year 1474, by D. R., viz. :—

“Nominale dictionum subtilium in hac sciencia;” being a table of Arabic and synonymous terms for metals and chemical substances, f. 2;—“Thesaurus Mundi, de transmutatione metallorum,” divided into three parts, the last of which comprises a large collection of chymical processes, with an alphabetical table prefixed. In a table of contents this work is entered as three articles; the titles “Ycocedron Philosophie,” and “Secreta Hermetis regis Grecorum,” being given to the first two parts; but from words of the author, at fol. 31, the title Thesaurus Mundi seems to apply to the three parts as one work, f. 4;—“Opus cujusdam Magistri Federici Bononiz,” f. 92; “Doctrina Aristotelis ad Alexandrum Regem,” f. 97;—[Rogerii Baconis] “Speculum Alkemie,” f. 101;—“Liber Nude Veritatis,” sive “Inferior Astronomia,” f. 110;—“Tractatus qui vocatur Rosarius,” f. 122;—“Liber qui vocatur Solaris,” f. 133 b.;—“Liber qui dicitur Gemma salutaris,” f. 142;—Instructions [of Rhasis] to his son Merlin, translated into English verse from the Latin [Cf. Ms. Sloan. 1091, f. 82], f. 153;—“Ad faciendum optimum azurum,” f. 168 b.;—“Opus cujusdam nudipedis heremite de Tyngbridge, ad solem verum,” in English, f. 168 b.

The initials D. R., with the date 1474, are affixed to several of the articles, and are probably intended to design David Ragor, of Wales, who is named at fol. 94 as the author of two processes there added. It is not improbable that he himself was the compiler of the Thesaurus Mundi, the principal treatise in the collection. On paper and vellum. Small Quarto. [15,549.]

“LES COUSTUMES et les établissemens au Comte Geffroy; establiz par le conseil et par l'assentement de touz les barons et de touz les evesques de Bretagne,” a compilation, stated to be founded on the Coutumier established by Geoffrey II., Duke of Brittany, son of Henry II., King of England. It is divided into 332 chapters; with a preface by the compiler, and a table of chapters. It is printed, with some variations, in the Nouveau Coutumier Général de France, by C. A. Bourdot de Richebourg, tom. iv. p. 199. On vellum. xvth cent. Quarto. [15,550.]

“THE SEVERALL Debates of the House of Commons, pro et contra, relating to the establishment of the Militia, disbanding the new raised forces, and raising a present supply for his Majestie,” 9 Nov.—20 Nov. 1685, f. 1;—Transactions and proceedings before the Ecclesiastical Commission, against Henry Compton, Bishop of London, relative to the case of Dr. John Sharp [afterwards Archbishop of York], 1686, f. 43;—Arguments upon St. Edward Hale's case, relative to holding an office of state, and neglecting to take the oaths; with his plea upon the king's dispensing with the act of 25 Car. II., and the opinion of the judges thereupon, Trin. Term, 2 Jac. II. [1686], f. 82;—Observations on the case of Customs, cited in Sir Edward Coke's 12th Report, f. 104. On the covers are stamped the arms of the Duke of Douglas, xviii cent. Small Folio. [15,551.]

FRAGMENT of the Cartulary of the Benedictine Abbey of St. Mary of Montebourg, in Normandy, diocese of Coutances ; containing copies of charters from kings of France, viz., Philip III., Philip IV., Louis IX., Louis X., and Charles VI., reciting, in many instances, and confirming, grants from William I., Henry I., and Stephen, Kings of England, as well as from various noblemen of France and England ; also of charters of Edward [III.], King of England (comprising one of Henry I.), Richard, Bishop of Coutances [1157], Sir Robert le Chamberlenc, Seigneur de Tancarville, 1295, and others ; together with an account of the temporalities of the monastery, 1417, and certificates of their rights in the forests of Normandy and Picardy, 1402-1460. Every instrument is certified, as collated with the original, by H. Le Sanc and Guillaume le Vallois, who affix their signatures, and who, at fol. 10, sign a further certificate of the authenticity of the documents here transcribed, dat. 9 Sept. 1452. A note at the foot of fol. 24 b. states that this book was written by Simon Maubert, one of the monks, at the command of William Guerin, Abbot, in the same year, 1452. Portions of the volume are wanting, after ff. 8, 9, 15 and 16. In Latin and French. On vellum. Folio. [15,605.]

A COLLECTION of early Norman-French poems, and tracts in prose, viz. :—

A calendar, with entries of Saints' days, f. 1 ;—" De David le prophécie," a rhyming poem, in lines of eight syllables, in two parts, relating to the heavenly Jerusalem and Christ's kingdom, as prophesied in Ps. xlv. Beg. " Or m'antandez un pou, signor." It is stated to have been composed in the year 1180, and is addressed, apparently, to ' Madame de Champagne,' who is alluded to at the close of the poem [f. 33, col. 2, l. 13], as ' la gentil sœur lou roi de France,' meaning Marie, daughter of Louis VII. of France, and wife of Henri I., Count of Champagne, who died in 1198, f. 5 ;—" L'antrée de la mosse [messe], comant l'an doit oir mosse," in prose, f. 34 ;—" Poem, by 'Maistre Gace' [Wace], on the institution of the feast of the Conception of the Holy Virgin, by William the Conqueror, and the legend of St. Anne, written in lines of eight syllables, f. 36 ;—"Des poignes d'anfer," a poem, in Alexandrine metre, of the Vision of St. Paul of the pains of Purgatory ; in a different version from that by Adam de Ros. Beg. "Beau soignor, et vos, dames, faites que l'on vos ohie," f. 80 ;—"Salut dou sanc et dou cors Jesu Crit," a hymn in eight-syllable verse, f. 86 b. ;—Hymns to the Virgin, and Jesus Christ, f. 87 b. ;—A poem, in Alexandrine metre, upon the power of the devil over souls ; and the answers to be given to his temptations. Beg. "Dame dex nostre peres ovra mout saigement," f. 89 b. ;—The seven penitential psalms, in Alexandrine verse, f. 96 b. ;—"Por faire l'arme sauve," a poem upon the vices of the age, generally known under the title of La Bible de Hugue, Seignor de Berze, whose name is here written, Freres Hugues de Varze, f. 99 ;—"Des bestelotes moralité," a moral fable, in eight-syllable verse. Beg. "Mout par est foz ciz qui antant," f. 106 b. ;—"Dou péchie d'orguel laissier," a tale of two knights, in eight-syllable verse. Beg. "Frainche gent, duce et debonaire," f. 109 ;—Cato's moral distichs, in eight-syllable verse, by 'Adams li Cloz,' as the author names himself, at the end. Beg. "Seignor, ains que ie vos commant," f. 112 b. ; in another early copy, Ms. Harl. 4333, f. 113 b., he is named 'Adans li Clers ;' and in a third, the authorship is given to Macé de Troies. By other writers, the author is named Adam de Suel, and Adam de Guienci. [See De la Rue, Essais sur les Bardes, tom. iii. p. 150 ; P. Paris, Manuscrits Fr., tom. vi. p. 342, and Hist. Litt. de la Fr., tom. xviii. p. 827.]—A didactic poem in Alexandrine metre, intitled, "Ansoignemens de doctrine." Beg. "Soignor, or escoutez, que Dex vos benohie," f. 118. [Another copy occurs in Ms. Eg. 745, f. 206, under the title "De Doctrinal le sauvage, f. 118."]—Poem on the vices of the age, intitled "Por chatoier les orguilloz," f. 122 ;—"Des xv. signez aez mémoire," a poem on the xv. Tokens of the day of Judgment, f. 124 ;—"De la plure chante l'estoire," a religious poem, f. 127 ;—"Des Apostres qui anonciant la foi nostre Signour Jesu Crit," a Life of St. Denys, Bishop of Paris, confounded with S. Denys the Areopagite, abridged from that written by Hilduinus, Abbot of St. Denys ; in prose, f. 130 ;—Poetical romance of William, King of England, a fabulous monarch. Beg. "Por recorder un dit sui ci endroit venuz," f. 140b. The subject and general outline of the story agree with the poem of Chrestien de Troye, intitled 'Guillaume Roi d'Engleterre' [analysed in the Hist. Litt. de la France, tom. xv. p. 221] ; but the present is an independent version, and written in a different, viz., Alexandrine, metre. It must have been composed after the year 1297, as S. Louis of France is mentioned, who was canonised in that year ;—"Li Livres de Sapience ;" moral reflexions from the scriptures and elsewhere, in prose, f. 152 ;—"Li salmons de cloistre espirituel, qui doit estre en chascune arme, et vient en moralité au cloistre materie," in prose, f. 156 ;—The Gloria in excelsis, the Creed, and the commencement of St. John's Gospel, in Latin, f. 137 ;—Form of confession, in French, f. 158 ;—Concluding portion of a second copy of the paraphrase of the 45th Psalm, described above, f. 160 ;—Commencement of a second copy of the Life of St. Denys, described above, f. 161. On vellum, written at the beginning of the xivth century. Quarto. [15,606.]

and $\frac{3}{4}$ Aug. 1751, in cypher, decyphered; a third to M. Boyer, French minister at Warsaw, dat. $\frac{21 \text{ Jul.}}{1 \text{ Aug.}}$ 1752; also in cypher, decyphered; a fourth to M. Durand, respecting the payment of a pension from Sweden to the widow of Count D'Orlick, dat. 20 May, 1760. In French. Folio. [15,610.]

A VOLUME of original Orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, signed by William Jephson, secretary, and addressed to Sir Robert Howard, Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, authorising payments for various public services, from 18 April, 1689, to 28 Sept. 1689; comprising many to Lord Ranelagh, for the Dutch troops, and to William Harbord, for the troops designed for Ireland; others for secret service; and at fol. 15, a payment to Mr. Rose, "for his Majesty's diamond George." An alphabetical index is added at the end. Folio. [15,611.]

JACOBI GOPYLI Commentarius in S. Pauli Epistolam ad Romanos, Edwardo Sexto, Britanniae Regi, dicatus. The author is probably identical with Jacques Goupil, Dr. in medicine, and professor of Botany in Paris, the translator and editor of several ancient medical works. The following portions of the present manuscript are wanting, viz., the latter part of the dedication, and the greater part of the Commentary for the 1st, 2d, and 15th, and the whole of the 16th, chapters. Apparently the presentation copy; in the original tooled binding. Octavo. [15,612.]

"ÉTAT des Maréchaussées de France, par Guillotte, Exempt de la Prévôté et Maréchaussée générale de l'Isle de France, 1750," containing tables of the numbers of officers of different ranks in that department throughout the kingdom, f. 2;—"Noms des villes, bourges et villages où resident les Maréchaussées, par ordre alphabétique," f. 72; A drawing in Indian ink, by the hand of G. [Gabriel-Jacques?] de St. Aubin, is prefixed to each division of the work. Arms. Octavo. [15,613.]

"LA RENOMMÉE que publie le bonheur de l'Europe, sous le mémorable regne de Jaques Auguste, Deuxième du nom, Roy de la Grande Bretagne; les avantages que produit la grossesse de la Reyne, et le souhait des nations, 1688," by M. Desporçellêts. The work contains an extravagant panegyric on James II. and his Queen Mary d'Este, and relates the joyful reception given at the several Courts of Europe, to the announcement of the Queen being with child. At fol. 106, is a letter from the Emperor [Leopold I.], to [Charles V.], Duke of Lorraine, communicating the intelligence. The author, in his dedication addressed to James II., states that he is descended from Guillaume Desporçelletts, who followed Richard I. to Palestine, and saved him from a surprise by Saladin. This is the original presentation copy, and has been in the possession of Mary d'Este, as appears from her arms and initials stamped on the binding. Small Quarto. [15,614.]

MÉMOIRE historique et politique sur la Province de Languedoc ; contenant tout ce qui s'est passé de plus mémorable avant et après sa réunion à la couronne, etc., fait par M. Nicolas de Lamoignon [de Blaville], Intendant de la Province, en 1696." Contemporaneous copy. Folio. [15,615.]

Tribunal de la Ynquisicion su Historia Civil ; con la Defensa o Apologia de la misma Historia, por Dⁿ. Melchor Rafael de Macanaz [Intendente del reyno de Aragon]." Belando's Historia Civil de España, was printed at Madrid, in three volumes, folio, in the years 1740-1744, and was suppressed by the Inquisition. The present annotations on the third volume, by Macanaz, are dated October, 1744. Cotemporaneous copy. Folio. [15,616.]

"TEATRO Genealogico delle Famiglie illustri, nobili e cittadine di Milano, per tutto il MDCCXXIV." Pedigrees of Milanese families, alphabetically arranged, and brought down to the year 1724. A list of names is prefixed. Large Folio. [15,617.]

"SCRITTI di Cavaleria, giustezza de manegi et effetti delle briglie, di Valerio Piccardini ; brevemente spiegati per darli a signori suoi scolari." In three parts, illustrated with numerous pen and ink sketches of the horse, and forms of bits, etc., and with two colored engravings by Gasparo Crivellari, of Padua. Written at the end of the xviiith century. Quarto. [15,618.]

CATALOGUS Sanctorum Episcoporum, in quo eorum nomina, diœcesum tituli, ac natalicii dies, recensentur ; Auctore Johanne Bernardo Diaz de Luco [Lugo], episcopo Calagurritano [Calahorra, in Old Castile], alphabetically arranged, f. 1 ;—Calendarium, in quo omnium Sanctorum Episcoporum dies natalicii continentur, juxta mensium et dierum ordinem, f. 93. Prefixed is a letter to the reader, in which the author states, that he compiled this work while attending at the Council of Trent [1550-1552]. From the marginal additions, this would appear to be the author's own copy. Small Quarto. [15,619.]

"THE ROYALL Genealogie of the antient, high borne, and most famous Kings of Scotland, which formerlie was called Albione, their descentance and succession ;" in four parts ; the last of which treats of the family of the Stewarts, including the royal family, with a supplement of others descended from it ; together with the Stewarts, Earls of Athol, Earls of Buchan, Earls of Traquair, Earls of Murray, and Earls of Brechine. At the end is an appendix concerning the most antient name of Menzies, of which descended the families of Pitfodells and Weeme, and of the Earls of Galloway. Prefixed is a list of authors and Mss. consulted; and a letter of dedication addressed to James [Drummond], Earl of Perth; William [Douglas], Duke of Hamilton; George [Gordon], Duke of Gordon; George [Mackenzie], Viscount Tarbat; William [Drummond], Viscount Strathallan, and others, in which the author states that he is a foreigner, and has made use of an ancient Ms. written by John Tulloch, Bishop of Orkney; dat. Edinb. June 12, 1688, and signed J. F. v. B. On the fly-leaf is written (but struck out with the pen) "Frederick von Bessen's (?) book," which may give the name of the author. Probably Autograph. Folio. [15,620.]

ii. "Transcriptum cujusdam geneologiæ familiæ Senescallorum [Stewards] in Anglia, elaborat. a Banquhone, Scoto, qui vixit circiter annum Domini millesimum, et usque ad annum Domini, 1572 duct;," with a pedigree prefixed, f. 14. This genealogical history of the family of Steward ends with Symeon Steward, in whose life-time, and while studying at Cambridge, in 1511, it was finished. Then follow later additions from the family evidences, by the compiler Augustine Steward, who brings down the descent to the year 1576. Inserted are the following documents:—

Engagement by Patrick, Earl of Dunbar, Walter Steward, Earl of Meneth, Robert Bruce, and others, of Scotland, of adherence to Sir Richard de

Burgh Earl of Ulster, and Sir Thomas de Clare, dat. "apud Turnebyry in Carryk," [20 Sept.] 1286, f. 35 b.;—Letters of Charles [VI.] of France, conferring on Alexander Stewart, for his services, and the services of Andrew, his brother, the honor of knighthood, and augmentation of arms, dat. Essex. Eight rolls. [15,648. a-h.]

ACCOUNT of the new-year's gifts presented to King James I., and also bestowed by him. The original heading to the account has been cut off, but the title on the dorse is as follows:—"New-years guifts given to the King's Ma^{ty}, at his highnes Pallace at Westminster, by the persons as hereafter ensue, 1 Jan. 2 Jac. I. [1603]." On both sides of the document is the King's autograph signature, and also subscribed by Sir Edward Carye, Master Treasurer of the jewels and plate. A vellum roll, of five membranes. [15,649.]

"DOUBLE des Procès Verbaux; contenant les Preuves de Noblesse faites par les Gentilshommes reçus en la Chambre de la Noblesse aux Etats de Bourgogne, à commencer de 1680; fait en exécution de la déliberacion de la dite Chambre, en date du 21 Juillet, 1766; sur les minutes des dits procès verbaux." In two volumes, containing the Procès Verbaux from 1680 to 1766; with a third volume, continuing them from 1769 to the year 1787. At the end of each of the first two volumes is a chronological table and index. The arms of Burgundy are stamped on the covers of the first two volumes. Large Folio. [15,650-15,652.]

"CRITIQUE du Nobiliaire de Provence de l'Abbé Robert [de Briançon], contenant l'épurement de la noblesse du pais, la différence des Gentilshommes de sang, d'origine de nom et d'armes, d'avec les nobles de race, des ennoblis, et de la noblesse de robbe, la différence enfin sur les diverses espèces de Noblesse, etc.; l'abrégé de l'histoire des Juifs de Provence; le catalogue des nouveaux Chrétiens de race Judaique de ce pais; avec les observations pourquoi ils sont en si grande horreur. On y trouvera aussi la table générale des gentilshommes de sang, de nomes et d'armes, de robe, de race, ennoblis, et familles éteintes." The Nobiliaire of the Abbé Robert was printed in his work, intituled L'Etat de la Provence, Par. 3 vol. 12°. 1693. The present volume, arranged alphabetically according to families, contains corrections of it, with considerable additions to the genealogies. The other subjects, expressed in the title, are treated of in the preface. Prefixed to the whole is an article relating to the Jews, intituled, "Remontrances faittes au Roy sur les désordres qui sont survenus en la Cour du Parlement de Provence, à cause des grandes parentés et alliances des Néophites, en l'année 1611," with other pieces. [Another Critique du Nobiliare de l'Abbé Robert de Briançon, in Ms., is mentioned by Le Long, and attributed to M. Mauvans, Bibl. Hist. de la France, tom. iv., p. 514.] xviiith cent. Large Folio. [15,653.]

"LI SONETI con le Canzone de lo egregio poeta Messer Francesco Petrarcha, Fiorentino," containing three hundred and twenty sonetti and forty canzone; with an Italian commentary upon each, added in the margin. The volume concludes with the "Laude a la Vergine Maria." An alphabetical table of the first line of each poem is prefixed. At the end is a note, stating that the volume was written by order of Alfonso, Duke of Calabria, by "Hippolytus Lunensis." Alfonso became King of Sicily in 1494; previous to which year, therefore, the volume was written. An original letter, on vellum, from Ferdinand I., King of Sicily, addressed to the city of Siena, and announcing the birth of a son to Alfonso, Duke of Calabria, dat. 5 July, 1467, with the royal seal and signature, was found loose in the volume, and is now inserted at the end. On paper. xvth century. It formerly belonged to Pierre Duchatel, Bishop of Orleans, whose autograph signature occurs at the beginning and end. Folio. [15,654.]

"CE SONT les Remonstrances que font Monseigneur [Pierre II., Duc de Bourbon] et Madame [Anne, daughter of Louis XI. of France, his wife], à cause d'elle, par devant Mess^{rs}. l'Evesque d'Alby [Louis d'Amboise], maistres Thibault Baillet, Jehan de Gaunay, présidens en la court de Parlement [and others], commissaires ordonnéz par le Roy [Louis XII.] pour oyr les dictes remonstrances," etc., representing the claims of the Duke and Duchess of Bourbon, by right of inheritance, to the property of Charles VIII., her brother, lately deceased [in 1498], including the county of Provence, bequeathed by Charles of Anjou, King of Sicily, to Louis XI. of France, and 40,000 livres of rent, assigned by Louis XI. as the dowry of the Duchess, on her marriage with Nicholas, Duke of Calabria, her first husband, etc. Copies of documents in support of the claims of the petitioners are annexed. At the end are:—a List of documents in the Chambre des comptes à Paris, the production of which is demanded by the Duke and Duchess, f. 115;—A copy of attestations delivered to the King's Advocate, of the bequest of the county of Provence, by Charles of Anjou to Louis XI., 13 Apr. 1499, f. 116;—and a copy of the sentence of the Commissioners, f. 117. This volume must have been written for Thibault Baillet, one of the commissioners nominated to judge the cause, as proved by his arms emblazoned on the margin of the first leaf, viz., Azure, a bend gules, between two wiverns, or. In the original stamped binding. Folio. [15,655.]

tore, under the title of "Speculum de mysteriis Ecclesiæ," namely, cap. vi. de vestimentis sacris, and part of cap. vii. de celebratione missæ, ff. 31, col. 1; 32, col. 1; 33 b., col. 2; 38 b., col. 2;—Fragment of another treatise "de Canone mystici libaminis," also ascribed to Hugo de S. Victore [and likewise to Johannes Cornubiensis], namely, part of cap. viii. and cap. ix., f. 32, col. 1, l. 20; f. 32 b., col. 2. [This fragment is mixed up with the former, and with some other short extracts from John Belet, "De officiis ecclesiæ," etc.];—Quotations from the Latin Vulgate, to illustrate particular texts of the New Testament [imperf.]. PSALTERIUM LATINUM, præmisso kalendario, cum canticis, litania, orationibus piis et officio mortuorum. On vellum. xiith cent. Octavo. [Bibl. Eg. 1139.]

The text is written throughout in a beautiful Roman minuscule, with initials and rubrics in fine gold. The larger letters are also of gold, elaborately designed, on a gold ground. Prefixed to the volume are twenty-four miniatures, illustrative of the Lives of Christ and the Virgin, painted, apparently, by a Greek artist, whose name, Basilus, is on the last miniature. In the kalendar are entered the obits of Baldwin II., king of Jerusalem [21 Aug. 1131], and of Emorfia, his Queen [1 Oct.]; from which circumstance, as well as from the prayers, it appears highly probable, if not certain, that this volume was executed for Melissenda, eldest daughter of Baldwin II. and wife of Foulques, Comte d'Anjou, who succeeded Baldwin on the throne of Jerusalem in 1131 and died in 1144, between which dates the volume must have been written. It is in the original coeval binding, and the covers are composed of ivory, exquisitely carved, and ornamented with turquoises. On the upper side are represented several events in the life of David, exemplifying the cardinal virtues, and, on the lower, illustrations of the seven works of mercy, in all of which a regal personage is introduced, probably intended for Foulques, King of Jerusalem. Near the upper border is inscribed the name of the ivory-carver, Herodius. On the back of the binding is embroidered the Jerusalem cross in silver. This volume is said to have belonged to the monastery of the Grand Chartreuse at Grenoble, and afterwards was in the possession of Dr. Commarmont of Lyons.
